EVENING

PHILOSOPHY I.

HISTORY OF PHILO

L.P. WRIGHT

FALL SEMESTER 1982

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Theatetus

Plato

Prophiles

[illegible]

COURSE DESCRIPTION

[illegible] of this course is to introduce students to some of the [illegible] central ideas [illegible] of western civilization. [illegible] scientific [illegible] we shall [illegible] thinking about the universe [illegible]

These discussions will [illegible] an examination of the great [illegible] philosophic systems of Hellenistic and Roman times [illegible] Epicurism. [illegible] Scepticism [illegible] each of [illegible] philosophies present [illegible] different views on the nature of the universe [illegible]

[illegible] course you will read some [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] from the [illegible] world.

[illegible] books [illegible] we have [illegible]

[illegible]TREMENTS:

COURSE REQU

[illegible] two [illegible] worth 20 marks each and two tests [illegible] 20 marks each.

EVENING COURSE