During the past forty years Vancouver has emerged as a major centre of the arts in Canada. Much of the responsibility for this is attributable to Mrs. Ilse Koerner greatest achievements. Few artistic enterprises of consequence have failed to gain from her dedication and hard work.

Since her arrival in Canada from Hungary in 1939, Mrs. Koerner has been heavily committed to community activities. As a musician herself, Mrs. Koerner