Some buildings have wifi, others have ethernet cables. I cannot comment on phone access because i just used a cell phone the whole time.

Online transfer

It is quite easy to find an apartment in the city.

Most banks have offers for international students who open accounts (I recieved 30 euros and a camcorder). Interenational students do however need to do quite a bit of paperwork.

Local currency

The first week you get a list of all the courses and you can attend as many as you like. After the first week, they have a meeting with all the international students and you fill out a form with the required courses and the ones you want to register for.

It was quite different. There are no papers to write. The only thing you really have to show up to is the Exam. The lectures are quite well done and the class size is quite small and managable.

It was good to see a different style of teaching that was a little more "hands off" which forces students to be more self-reliant.
