Develop new skills, while working collaboratively with others and networking through the program through good problem solving skills. Let's Do Breakfast is a non-profit organization that strives to serve SD36 elementary school students with a well-balanced breakfast so that they function efficiently within their classes.

As a Let's Do Breakfast Volunteer, you will help the program leads distribute healthy food items to students between Kindergarten-Grade 7. This program offers you a direct opportunity to work with children at a Surrey elementary school.

- Acquire knowledge of learning to work together with children
- Gain knowledge about a healthy balanced breakfast
- Productively engage in conversation with a young learner to cater to their breakfast needs
- Facilitate inclusivity within the breakfast club setting
- Demonstrate efficient teamwork skills while working with other volunteers and team leaders

- Gain experience working with children
- Develop, practice, and strengthen leadership, communication, time management, and planning skills;
- Create positive social impact in society.
- Obtain volunteer hours, while making an impact on the community!

In-person at Strawberry Hill Elementary 7633 124 St, Surrey, BC V3W 8N2
