SUBJECT: CODE OF ACADEMIC HONESTY

1.0 STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLE

All members of the University community share the responsibility for the academic standards and reputation of the University. Academic honesty is a cornerstone of the development and acquisition of knowledge. Academic honesty is a condition of continued membership in the university community.

2.0 ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Academic dishonesty, like other forms of dishonesty, is misrepresentation with intent to deceive or without regard to the source or the accuracy of statements or findings. Academic dishonesty, in whatever form, is ultimately destructive of the values of the University; it is furthermore unfair and discouraging to the majority of students who pursue their studies honestly. Scholarly integrity is required of all members of the University.

3.0 FORMS OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The illustrations presented below are considered to be representative but not definitive nor exhaustive of activities which could be considered to constitute academic dishonesty.

- (a) Plagiarism is a form of dishonesty in which an individual submits or presents the work of another person as his or her own. Scholarship quite properly rests upon examining and referring to the thoughts and writings of others. However, using an accepted format for the underlying discipline.

Plagiarism exists when all or part of an essay is copied from an author, or composed by another person, and presented as original work.

- (b) Submitting the same essay, presentation, or assignment more than once whether the earlier submission was at this or another
