

QUESTIONS? Call Lisa Elliott Ceremonies & Events (778-227-7701) or email lisa_elliott_2@sfu.ca

The role of the Graduand Marshal is to:

- x Lead the graduand procession from AQ to Convocation Mall

Ceremonies & Events (C&E) key roles:

- x Director– Sue Porter
- x Associate Director Kira Davis

To familiarize yourself with the route and role of the Graduand Marshal during the academic procession and recessional, please refer to the 'Graduand Marshal Diagram' here: https://www.sfu.ca/convocation/faculty_rsvp/marshals.html

Additionally, you can watch this video (starting at 29:00): SFU May Convocation 2022.

To view archived webcasts of convocation ceremonies, please go to this link: https://www.sfu.ca/convocation/video_gallery.html

AM	PM
8:55	1:40	Pick up regalia from Strand Hall 310. If you have your own regalia, you can go straight to the AQ to meet with the Student Convenor.
9:15	2:00	Meet the Student Convenor at the head of the graduand procession in AQ 4000 North. This is at the outdoor part of the AQ, by the Bill Reid Black Eagle canoe. Student Services Staff will direct the grad line-up process.

PROCESSION
9:35 2:20

The procession begins, cued by the Student Convenor

The order to start the processions will come from Sue Porter, who will cue the piper to start. The piper leads the academic procession. See Lineup Diagram

The graduands should be seated when they reach their seats.

