

Kenneth Percy Caple born in Vancouver, graduated from the University of British Columbia with a bachelor and masters degree in agriculture. He subsequently did post-graduate

His professional career has encompassed many areas in educational fields in this Province. He was a teacher in Cloverdale and Summerland and was principal of Summerland High School for ten years. This was followed as the Director of the Dominion Provincial Youth Training program at the University of British Columbia, from where he joined the Department of Education as Director of the B.C. School Broadcasting program.

~~His career in the broadcasting field continued with the Canadian~~ Broadcasting Corporation, first as Regional Program Director, and then as the Regional Director for British Columbia.

~~Over a span of years Mr. Caple~~