

1978

ARNOLD HEIN CITATION

A westcoaster by birth and commitment, you have played a vital role in the development of this province — in business, industry, education and international relations.

After wartime service with the RCAF, the British Army and the Royal Australian Air Force, you returned to Canada to take both your arts and law degrees