

Today we honour Dr. William S. Hoar, a Canadian of international standing; a teacher and world renowned scientific scholar for more than forty years; and above all a warm and compassionate man who has made major contributions to Canada and the world.

Dr. Hoar received his undergraduate degree from the University of New Brunswick and continued his formal education with graduate degrees from the University of Western Ontario and from the University of Toronto.