

Mr. Chancellor, I present to you Dr. Harry Gunning, a man of scientific accomplishment whose contributions to Canadian chemistry are the envy of some and the inspiration to many. These accomplishments, defined in nearly two hun-

As I said, the work of Dr. Gunning is a study of the interaction of light