

... Fred Lloyd Hartley, a native British Colum bian who has risen to the highest ranks in corporate America.

Born in Vancouver, Fred Hartley, fresh from a degree in chemical engineering from The University of British Columbia, moved south to California. There he began his career as an engineering supervisor with Union Oil of California. Propelled by energy and intellect, he rose steadily through Union Oil's ranks, and in 1964 he was named Chief Executive Officer. Since