

Madam Chancellor, I take particular pleasure in presenting Patricia Kathleen Page, an eminent British Columbian whose dexterity in word and visual image has earned her international esteem. "The chief glory of every people arises from

P.K. Page's art.

Born in England, P.K. Page came to Canada in 1919 at the age of three. Her father's work required frequent family moves, establishing a nomadic pattern that