

On the occasion of its Silver Anniversary, Madam Chancellor, I take particular pleasure in presenting to you Ronald Baker, a man whose guidance and good counsel helped shape the founding and development of Simon Fraser University. First faculty member and first Director of Academic Planning, the [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] his [redacted] laid the [redacted] for this

[redacted] University's identity and unique presence. Twenty five years later, Donald Baker's [redacted]