

Mr. Chancellor, each era gives birth to leaders who by virtue of intellect and imagination inspire us to face the major challenges of our times. Dr. Cary Fowler is one such individual. For more than thirty years, he has championed the conservation of the world's genetic plant heritage for this and future generations.

He earned his B.A. in Sociology at Simon Fraser University in 1971 and returned to the United States,