

political culture and public policy. His co-authored I  C won the 2000 Harold Innis Prize for best Canadian book in the social sciences. He has contributed to public policy research on subjects ranging from crown corporation governance to national health policy.

Upon his retirement from SFU, Dr. Stevenson said he was looking forward to the “calmer waters and quieter harbours” of his “troisième age.” A former Shakespearean actor with a lifelong passion for the arts, he currently serves on the boards of the Vancouver Opera, the BC Achievement Foundation, PuSh International Festival for the Performing Arts and the Advisory Council of the Vancouver Indian Summer Festival.

Madam Chancellor, on behalf of the Senate of this University, I ask that you now confer the degree of Doctor of Laws, , on Michael Stevenson.