

happiness is activity in accordance with excellence, it is reasonable that it should be in accordance with the highest excellence." On the strength of this exhortation, Bursill-Hall should indeed be a happy man and all of us the happier for knowing him.

On behalf of the Senate, Madam Chancellor, for his scholarship and for his years of dedicated