Honorary Degree Citations
The degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, conferred on Dr. Theodor Sterling Thursday, June 7, 2001

Mr. Chancellor, it is a privilege to present Dr. Theodor Sterling, Professor Emeritus, and one of our university's most respected faculty members. We honour him today for his many lasting contributions to science, society, and Simon Fraser University.

When Ted Sterling joined SFU in 1972 to establish our computing science program, he was already a full professor and one the world's leading experts in the application of computing
