

V3C 4X3

Community Police Stations (CPS) in Coquitlam and Port Coquitlam provide volunteers and field practice students with hands-on experience in many facets of policing from writing reports, meeting the public, patrolling neighbourhoods, to championing new initiatives.

The student will:

- o Work on the front lines of public safety developing 20792 research for being skills at one of the four Community Police Stations in Coquitlam or Port Coquitlam.
- o Develop their leadership, team work, public service, and emotional intelligence by being involved in a wide range of important public safety-related activities including – bike and foot patrols, distracted driving programs, Lock Out Auto

Applicants under 19 yrs old must fill out and submit RCMP form 5272 with their application (parent support for the student's involvement).

Must have been in Canada for more than 3 years.

Applications must be submitted in person.

Please bring a piece of government-issued identification when submitting your application.

Shift work? No

Irregular hours? Occasional evening or weekend community events and meetings.

CPR or other certification? no

Is a car required or necessary? No. But can help for attending some community events

Does the student need any specific skills or knowledge? Excellent written and verbal communication skills required. Professional discretion and ability to respect confidentiality required.

Training is provided.