

Refer to the current academic calendar or the Criminology website for full program requirements.

This certificate is primarily directed toward undergraduates and criminal justice professionals, but is open to all. Those who hold a bachelor's degree (in any field of study) should refer to the post baccalaureate diploma in criminology.

To graduate students must obtain a minimum of 2.25 CGPA, 2.25 UDGPA, 2.25 Criminology program CGPA, and 2.25 Criminology program UDGPA. Students must obtain a minimum grade of C- in all required CRIM courses.

PROGRAM DECLARATION

Admitted SFU students must declare their program of study by completing the program declaration form. Students who are admitted to the program must complete the program declaration form by the deadline. Students who are not admitted to the program must complete the program declaration form by the deadline.

Z/D íííU Z/D íííU Z/D ííñU Z/D îîîU Z/D îîî

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Minimum 16 units must be completed, including:

(1) of CRIM 103 or 104

CRIM 101

CRIM 131

CRIM 135

CRIM 220

CRIM 230

(2) of the following:

(1) of any 100 or 200 level PHIL course

POL 151

PSYC 100

PSYC 102

SA 150

STAT 203 or STAT 205

Students must complete the program declaration form by the deadline. Students who are not admitted to the program must complete the program declaration form by the deadline.