

Canada's Role in the World:
Voices from faith-based communities

FINAL REPORT

June 3,

Summary

On June 3, 2008, at the invitation of Canada's World and The Mosaic Institute, 10

II. Objectives for this roundtable

This roundtable, entitled "Canada's Role in the World: Voices from Faith-based Communities", brought a small group of leaders who are working on building bridges between faith-based groups in the Toronto area. The objectives of the existence, we embody a respectful and open society that embraces diversity of peoples and cultures, and that we see beyond our own needs and maintain a global perspective in our way forward as a country.

B) How does your faith advocate for a peaceful society, and what is your community doing to contribute to the greater human family?

It was agreed that all of the individuals p

that Canada

are m

Shauna invi

APPENDIX A

The following are ideas for p

2. Sign up for our newsletter

<http://list-manage.com/subscribe.phtml?id=21f56fd57b>

We'll be holding dialogues and events in your area and the

APPENDIX B

APPENDIX C

Canada's Rol