

Find us onlin

- Advancing human rights (e.g. women's rights program lauded) and peace ef religious freedom, creativity, forbearance, and the family as a basic unit of society. They focused on the importance of promoting the idea of common humanity that also supports many diverse cultures.

The assets they think Canada brings to this policy field are: its reputation and international relationships, economic resources, diversity and capital, natural resources, potential for growth (population), educated population with high lite

Climate Change

The key values this group identified as being most important to guide action on climate change in Canada were: a willi