

The School of Engineering Science invites applications for the following position(s):

TEACHING ASSISTANT
Teaching Support Staff Union (TSSU)

COURSE: ENSC 252 Fundamentals of Digital Logic & Design

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Knowledge of digital system design and computer architecture
- Experience with CAD toolchains for Altera FPGAs
- Extensive knowledge and experience with VHDL
- MUST be available for all lab times until day/times are assigned to TAs by the course instructor
- MUST be available for all months of the semester
- Written and one-to-one oral communication skills
- Time management skills

The University is committed to the principle of equity in employment

The information submitted with your application is collected under the authority of the University Act