The School of Engineering Science invites applications for the following position(s):

TEACHING ASSISTANT
Teaching Support Staff Union (TSSU)

COURSE: ENSC 405W Capstone A: Project Design, Management, and Documentation

QUALIFICATIONS:

The specific knowledge areas listed communicate what is necessary to TA this course. Applicant background in the following areas, demonstrated through experience, coursework, or equivalent combination thereof, will ensure sufficient knowledge in the discipline of the course to interpret the course material.

-   Familiar with the Engineering design processes and design reviews
-   Experience writing Engineering design documents such as proposals, requirements and design specifications, test plans, and progress reports; please attach a sample of your writing to your application
-   Familiar with user interface design
-   Experienced with team projects and troubleshooting
-   Experience with Issue-Tracking Systems such as the one found in GitLab
-   Entrepreneurial experience is an asset, as is some understanding of markets
-   Written and one-to-one or small-group oral communication skills
-   Time management skills

The University is committed to the principle of equity in employment

The information submitted with your application is collected under the authority of the University Act (R.S.B.C. 1996, c.468, s. 27(4)(a)), applicable federal and provincial employment regulations and requirements, the University's non-academic employment policies and applicable collective agreements.

The information is related directly to and needed by the University to initiate the employment application process. The information will be used to contact references supplied by you, evaluate your qualifications