

Safety, Emergency Preparedness and Security

August 28, 2019

Safety & Risk Services

- Responsible across all campuses for:
 - Emergency response (first aid, safety, security)
 - Emergency planning & disaster recovery
 - Security & access control
 - SafeWalk
 - Occupational health & safety
 - Lab safety
 - Travel risk management
 - Business Continuity Planning
 - Enterprise Risk Management

Critical Events on Campus: What is in place

- GP 31 Emergency Management Policy
- Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan
- Threat-specific plans
- Emergency Operations Centre – training, drills, exercises
- New worker orientation
- Emergency signage
- Phones in classrooms
- AED devices (see online map) and free AED/CPR training
- Campus Public Safety emergency response
- Regular all-campus communications on preparedness
- Critical Issues Response & Management Protocol
- Blue Light Stations
- Travel risk management
- EFAP and My SSP app for mental health supports

Preparedness: A Shared Responsibility

Familiarize yourself and your colleagues with:

- Download the SFU snap app and authorize text alerts
- Posted emergency evacuation routes
- Nearest AED to your office and classroom
- What to do in event of an earthquake
- Start of semester safety & emergency scripted message from SRS
- Emergency plans and resources
<http://www.sfu.ca/srs/emergency/response.html>
- Sign up for free CPR & AED training
- EFAP and My SSP for students

In an emergency call 911

Campus Security

- Urgent Security/First Aid 778.782.4500
- Non-Emergency/Safewalk 778.782.7991

