A central goal of the minimum funding guarantee is equity, which the Faculty of Education defines as fairness and justice in the allocation of funding resources. In allocating funds to eligible graduate students, we will consider the sources of funding that individual students have access to, and we will equitably distribute the various kinds of funding that students can receive (e.g., monetary awards, paid employment).

Minimum funding in the PhD program has been established to support students who are ___ engaged in professional work and who are living in the Lower Mainland of British Columbia. Students who are full-time working professionals will not receive a minimum funding guarantee. Students who are part-time working c o e o, m e A n o ke
