

SFU
Graduate Program in Individualized Interdisciplinary Studies
PhD Minimum Funding Policy

This program-level funding policy has been developed to accompany GGR 1.17.

September 1, 2024

Approved by Individualized Interdisciplinary Studies
24, 2024

January

Approved by Graduate Studies on January 25, 2024

-
6. Student funding will not be provided in equal increments over the course of the academic year. Students are advised to budget accordingly.
 7. The funding year begins in Fall and ends in Summer for all students enrolled in the program. Students who begin the program in a semester other than the semester in which the funding year begins will have their funding accordingly pro-rated for the

8. non-required Co-count against the total terms of guaranteed funding.

9. within the program, students will receive the following funding adjustment _____ their guaranteed minimum funding amount if they are successful in securing major external awards including, but not limited to, Tri-Agency awards:

awards of $5,000 or less: Students receive the full award in addition to their guaranteed minimum funding.

awards over $5,000: Students will receive at least $5,000 above the guaranteed minimum funding amount.