SUGGESTED COURSES FOR SPRING 2025

Considerations

Please check course prerequisites, availability and WQB designations on go.sfu.ca or on the SFU Calendar (www.sfu.ca/students/calendar.html).

It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of faculty regulations as stated in the Calendar. Departmental and faculty advisors are available to provide advice and guidance. However, the ultimate responsibility for completeness and correctness of course selection, for compliance with and completion of program and degree requirements and for observance of regulations and deadlines rests with the student.

Enrollment is never guaranteed. Some courses may have enrollment restrictions to allow declared (or intended) students from a specific department or faculty to access these courses before other students.

Contact the department offering the course for more information about enrollment restrictions you have dicked on the course details in go.sfu.ca first.

Although MySchedule is an excellent planning tool, it fails to provide full details about courses. You are best served by looking up information on courses in goSFU.

A list of all academic advisors is available at http://students.sfu.ca/academicadvising/contact_us/sfu_advisors.html.

Please email your ______ to advising_is@sfu.ca for consideration of a prerequisite waiver. Do not send your unofficial transcript, co-op transcript or your academic progress report as these documents are not helpful for advising purposes.

Courses noted in red are not in the IScurriculum but students are allowed to count them towards the non-IS electives in their specific concentration for the specified term only. Students must notify advising_is@sfu.ca if enrolled in classes noted in red.

Include the following information: name, student number, concentration, term, course number, credits and the full course title. Courses noted in black are part of the regular International Studies curriculum.

The School for International Studies will not process tutorial swaps past the self-enrollment date of each term or course swaps/adds past the second Friday of each term.

ENROLLMENT TIPS

OL sections: distance education classes.

B sections: blended learning classes.

D900 sections: priority enrollment for students in a Surrey-based program.

Some classes have reserve capacity (e.g., 80-100% of seats in upper division POL classes are reserved for declared POL students only). International Studies indicates its enrollment in goSFU.

Most enrollment restrictions are lifted during open enrollment period.

You can place yourself on waitlists (should they exist) if you meet course prerequisites regardless of enrollment restrictions.

. Students can waitlist for a maximum of 9 credits only and enroll in up to 18 credits.
