

“Migrant Rights in an Era of Globalization: The Mexico-US Case”

April 13, 2011

School of Social Service Administration, 969 E. 60th Street Chicago Illinois

Co-sponsored by the University of Chicago’s School of Social Service Administration, the Center of Latin American Studies, the Katz Center for Mexican Studies and the Human Rights Program of the University of Chicago.

Co-Coordinator Jacob Lesniewski and Rebecca Vonderlack-Navarro

April 13th, 2011

Opening Remarks

1:00-1:15

Panel 1: “The Political Economy of Transnational Labor Citizenship”

1:15-2:45pm

Alejandra Ancheita, Executive Director of Proyecto de Derechos Económicos, Sociales y Culturales, A.C (PRODESC), Mexico City