DAY

PHILOSOPHY 120

[illegible]

deontological ethics. In our examination we will evaluate answers to at least some of the following questions: Why should I be moral? Are there any objective moral values [illegible] and if so, what are they? How do we determine what are our moral duties? [illegible]

(Hume, Hobbes, Mill, Kant, etc.) and contemporary (Rawls, Nozick, Singer, etc.) philosophers. Since this is a W course (writing intensive) [illegible] will be made to help students develop their abilities to clearly express [illegible]

[illegible]

- Essay - 1500 words - 30%
- 3-hour final exam - 30%
- Tutorial participation - 10%

Note: Philosophy 120 has no prerequisites.