Social and Political Philosophy

… how equality, in this context, should be … There is a further question of … understood: is it equality of resources, … welfare, or opportunity? We will discuss the issue of what type of equality we're … what makes a particular distribution of the benefits and burdens of society equitable? To this end, we will look at arguments for both liberalism and libertarianism. … Some of the thinkers to be discussed include: John Rawls, Robert Nozick, Michael Sandel, … Wald… and … Williams.

Note: Prerequisite: PHIL 120 or 220.

Note: all papers for the course must be processed through …