

PHILOSOPHY 200

DAY

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Continental Philosophy Since 1750: The Disfranchisement of the Philosophy

Nietzsche

Basel's Wirkung

DESCRIPTION:

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores the work of the German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche and his influence on the development of modern philosophy. The course will focus on Nietzsche's critique of religion, morality, and society, and his concept of the Übermensch. We will also examine his influence on other philosophers and writers, such as Martin Heidegger, Jean-Paul Sartre, and Albert Camus.