Revision No.

Display of Notices, Posters, Advertisements, etc. on Campus

Policy

To eliminate the amount of paper and banners affixed to walls, and to curtail the damage to painted and finished surfaces of the University, the posting of handbills, banners, and posters on campus will be regulated in accordance with this policy. The Director, Facilities Management, is responsible for the implementation and control of this policy.

Procedure

1. Posters, notices, and advertisements may be placed only on notice boards provided for such items. They will not be permitted on walls, glass, concrete surfaces, or doors. Banners, three (3) maximum, may be placed only in the Convocation Mall on the following locations and only when such banners meet specified design and appearance criteria.
