

R e s e s e r

Street sweeps are a harmful practice to those who rely on public space. Often it is hard to prevent or stop the practice from happening—particularly when there are no existing protections in place. Attached below, are links to resources that provide guidance for unhoused residents facing street sweeps.

o L R e e S g a t t l

<https://www.pivotallegal.org/know-your-rights-handbook/> provides very useful and accessible information in informing you about your rights as citizens. Also lists helpful resources on their website, such as toolkits on how to navigate your encounters with police safely.
https://www.pivotallegal.org/legal\_referral\_info/ a list of accessible legal resources and support for those who have barriers to accessing legal help

o m c s e e O P m g t t a h

<https://www.bchousing.org/housing-assistance/homelessness-services/homeless-outreach-program/> A program that is free for anyone 19 years or older and is struggling with finding permanent housing and does not currently have a fixed address. It offers immediate outreach help, including finding housing options, support services, and ongoing support as needed.

m s e C e e B B n l

o o e e c dU c C éM é àne s fants e Vgr an n g r rl <http://www.unitedwecan.ca/how-we-help/lane-cleaning>

Non-profit organization that advocates for marginalized people and the environment by helping to train and employ individuals in street cleaning and saeargz