

Speaking for the Salmon: A Community Workshop to Review Preliminary Results of 2003 Studies on Sea Lice and Salmon in the Broughton Archipelago Area of British Columbia

A G E N D A

Monday, January 5th, 2004

- |                  |   |
|------------------|---|
| 2:00 ... 2:30 pm | Refreshments  |
| 2:30 ... 2:45 pm | Opening address, welcome and prayerChief Bill Cranmer • Namgis First NationMichael Berry Project Coordinator, Inner Coast Natural Resource Centre and workshop moderatorPatricia Gallagher Director, Centre for Coastal Studies |
| 2:45 ... 3:00 pm | Status of the Pink Salmon Action Plan followed by discussionJohn Pringle Manager, MEHSD, Fisheries and Oceans Canada, Sidney  |
| 3:00 ... 4:00pm  | Preliminary observations on juvenile salmonids and their lice infections followed by discussionBrent Hargreaves Research Scientist, Salmon Section, Fisheries and Oceans Canada, Nanaimo  |
| 4:00- 4:30pm     | Caligid copepods on juvenile salmon and some non-salmonids in the Broughton Archipelago followed by discussionSimon Jones Fish Health Research Scientist, Fisheries & Oceans Canada, Nanaimo  |
| 4:30 ... 5:00 pm | Juvenile salmon out migration and adult returns followed by discussionGordon McEachern (or Pieter Van Will), Acting Chief Conservation Management, Fisheries and Oceans Canada, Campbell River  |
| 5:00 ... 6:00pm  | Provincial Government and Industry updateJoanne Constantine Fish Health Veterinarian, BC Ministry of Agriculture Food and Fisheries   |
| 6:00 ... 7:00 pm | Dinner ($20 per person)  |
| 7:00 ... 8:00 pm | Ongoing Research followed by discussionAlexandra Morton R.P. Biologist, Raincoast Research  |

Speaking for the Salmon: A Community Workshop to Review Preliminary Results of 2003 Studies on Sea Lice and Salmon in the Broughton Archipelago
Area of British Columbia

9:45- 10:00am

Refreshments

10:00am

distributions in nature

Inigo Novales-Flamarique Professor, Biological Sciences, Simon Fraser University