scheduling courses for particular spaces on campus, specifically for students to attend synchronous remote courses.

The issue regarding priority enrollment and international students is being developed. There is a significant amount of work required before enrollment schedules can be published. One challenge is how to identify students who may have difficulty with travel or other specific needs – e.g. international students, Indigenous students, and students with accessibility needs. Once planning is finalized, Student Services will begin connecting with the faculties with the goal to release enrollment schedules by the end of June.

The Vice-Chair reminded everyone to attend the Town Hall next week and should they have further questions, to let her know.
