f. English Language and Culture Program (For discussion) (Guests: Julia Denholm and Bertrand Lee)

- x  The ELC program is an immersive, holistic experience. There are no textbooks. Student learning goes beyond the classroom into day to day activities, dinner table conversations, and their daily commute, etc.
- x  The minimum requirement for successful completion is a grade of B- or better, based on assessments such as assignments, presentations, portfolios, and final exams. 85% attendance for each of the six courses in the program.
- x  The English Language and Culture Program (ELC) and Fraser International College (FIC) have a good relationship. Students from FIC that haven't met the language requirement go through ELC to bridge
