1. Approval of agenda & previous minutes (May 2021)
The agenda and previous minutes were approved. New SCUTL members introduced to the committee were Faculty member Scott Harrison from FENV and Kristiina Kumpulainen from EDUC. Faculty member Susan Clements from FCAT was elected by acclamation the day of the meeting and will attend meetings starting September 2021. We are awaiting the results for an undergraduate representative. No graduate students ran for SCUTL this year. Faculty member Mark Lechner from FHS and John Stockie, the Faculty Senator, were think most faculty will not thoroughly read a 5-page document with a 10-step process due to their heavy workloads. Based on some committee members' experience with peer review at other institutions, it is a valuable, rich, and formative process. Mark Lechner and Diana Cukierman previously participated in a crossdisciplinary, grassroots, formative teaching buddy system within their respective Faculties. It was not for evaluation and members could choose where their peers come from. The informal process included sharing classroom activities, teaching styles, and teaching pedagogies. Specific TPCs have
