

School of Interactive Arts and Technology
Teaching Assistant Qualifications –
Fall 2024

The following notes will be listed under each TA qualification in the Dashboard for TA applicants to view:

Additional qualifications for SIAT Undergraduate applicants:

- 1) Applicant must be in 3rd year or higher with good academic standing.
- 2) Applicant must have completed the course and achieved an A- or higher.
- 3) If the UG applicant does not meet 1) or 2), the applicant must provide a strong written letter of support from the instructor with the application materials.

All SIAT Graduate, Undergraduate and non-SIAT applicants:

All hired TAs are required to attend scheduled TA training sessions if not TAed before.

IAT 359 Mobile Computing - SRY

Instructor: Helmine Serban

Qualifications:

- Experience with mobile app development using React Native
- Proficiency with Visual Studio Code as a development environment
- Experience with leading workshops including: teaching practical programming concepts, solving errors in code, providing guidance and constructive feedback to students during their lab activities and project work
- Maintain an ongoing communication with the instructor and provide timely feedback on marking, lab progress and other course issues

Updated: September 10, 2024