

Step Out of Your Comfort Zone

By Jeff

SFU Student Undergraduate
Beedie School of Business › Management Information Systems
Study Abroad

Initiative: Global Skills Opportunity
Program: Study Abroad › Exchange
University: University of Hong Kong
Location: Hong Kong
Story Faculty: Beedie School of Business

Studying abroad in a foreign country is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity that can greatly benefit your personal and academic growth. It allows you to immerse yourself in a new culture, learn a new language, and gain a unique perspective on the world. Stepping out of your comfort zone will help you develop independence, adaptability, and resilience, all of which are valuable skills for both personal and professional success. Additionally, studying abroad can open doors to new career opportunities, and make you stand out on college and job applications. Furthermore, you will make lifetime friendships and memories. It is also a great way to discover yourself, to see what you are capable of and what you want to pursue in life. All in all, studying abroad is a life-changing experience that you will never regret.

Hong Kong Skyline at Tsim Tsai Tsui