_

Ardalan: University college of Dublin for spring 2010.

I had decided to go on an exchange during my first year of university and as soon as I had completed enough credits I applied to go. Exchange has thought me so many invaluable things that I would never have any regrets that exchange is useful to a narrow category of students such as those studying international would not have by staying at SFU. Having the experience of communicating and getting contacts with people abroad is a great asset to have for your future career no matter what path you choose to take.

stress if you plan everything out right and give yourself enough time. For example, I suggest I should say right now that you need a return ticket

After you get accepted from SFU you wi

Ireland that really made the trip for me was the people. There is a reason that Irish people have visitor in their country. I found that I first made friends with all the international students and