

FINANCIAL DETAILS

How was your experience in our host country?

opening a local bank account.

How would you recommend we improve our program?

I recommend that you offer more financial support for students who are unable to pay every beginning of the month. Many banks in the host country do not have every two weeks.

What is/are the preferred method(s) of payment at most establishments?

The list of international courses will be sent with us a few weeks before.

What discipline(s) were your main areas of interest in the host country?

What were your main areas of interest in the host country?

If not English, what language did you use?

Describe the manner and quality of instruction:

Fairly easy. The host country will be glad to help.

What do you feel is/will be the main academic benefit of your international exchange?

Many exchange students have a hard time finding a host family and we have a lot of students who get to know more about the country we were doing our exchange in.

Submission Instructions:

1. Write a report of your experience.
2. Subject line of email: Exchange Student Report
3. Please include your SFU name and student number.
