If you live in Villa Alvarado (apartment style housing for SDSU students) internet connection and cable will be provided.

You pay $350 online.

Off campus housing has it's pros and cons. One obvious pro is it will be a lot cheaper and possibly even nicer/bigger than the on campus apartments that you are likely to be stuck in if you are an incoming exchange student. However, you won't meet as many people and that's a big drawback considering you're an exchange student who's only there for student

I brought about $1000 in cash and the rest on credit.

Everything is accepted.

Exchange students are given very early registration dates so you shouldn't have any problems getting the classes that you desire.
