

Waking up my senses

I just finished reading the latest issue of University Affairs (January-February 2021). I am a big fan of the magazine and take my time to read the paper copy from cover to cover. Reading UA this evening made me even more aware of how much the pandemic has impacted my life, and this